NEWS RELEASE – MAY 20, 2011

General Plan Advisory Committee nears the end of its review process

The last scheduled meeting of the General Plan Advisory Committee (GPAC) of the City of Twentynine Palms is set to take place on Monday, May 23, from 6 to 9 p.m. at City Hall, 6136 Adobe Road.

The GPAC and the General Plan consulting firm, Hogle-Ireland Inc., will review the GPAC's final recommendations and comments for all the elements of the City's Draft General Plan Update, including Noise, Recreation, Housing, Safety, Land Use, Circulation, and Conservation/Open Space, as well as the Executive Summary. A review of the Environmental Impact Report and supporting EIR Technical Reports is also on the agenda.

At the end of the meeting, GPAC members will have an opportunity to express their personal comments about the General Plan Update and the review process, after which the consultant will be tasked with preparing the draft documents for the next phase in the update process, which will include Planning Commission and City Council public hearings.

Supporting materials for the May 23 meeting are available on the City's website at www.29palms.org.

As usual, the public is encouraged to attend the General Plan Update meetings.
